

STRIPES RIPPED FROM UNIFORMS

Two Virginia Cadets Driven From Institution.

INSULTED YOUNG WOMEN

Summary Action Taken by Military Organization at Polytechnic School in Richmond.

RICHMOND, Va., May 6.—Disgraced and humiliated, the insignia of rank cut from the uniforms, two members of the cadet corps at the Virginia Polytechnic institute, at Blacksburg, have been driven forth by their fellows and branded men with whom gentlemen should not longer associate. The offense imputed to them is that while in a state of intoxication they offered insults to young women. The only thing to lighten the burden of their disgrace is the suppression of their names by the institute authorities.

As soon as the charges against the two became known to the cadets a committee of investigation was appointed. A thorough examination was made, and the committee reported to the cadet body that the charges were true. Two representatives of each class then waited upon the accused cadets and informed them that they must leave Blacksburg at once.

Publicly Disgraced.

They were then commanded to attire themselves in full uniform and to proceed to the parade ground. Arriving there, they found the whole cadet body drawn up in martial array. The trembling culprits were marched down in front of the line and halted where the eyes of all present might rest upon him. Their uniforms were resplendent with the stripes of rank worn by them through months of arduous toil.

"You have disgraced these emblems," said the senior officer solemnly, "and will not be permitted to carry them away with you."

STEVENSON EULOGIZES LATE JUDGE SPRINGER

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., May 6.—Funeral services were held here yesterday at the First Methodist Episcopal Church over the body of Judge William M. Springer, for twenty years a Representative in Congress and later a Federal judge in the Indian Territory, who died in Washington last winter.

HEIR TO $100,000 FOUND AFTER LONG SEARCH

NEW YORK, May 6.—After a search covering the whole of the United States, George Miller, heir to more than $100,000 left to him after he had been exiled from Brooklyn for three years, has been found at last.

While agents of his father's executors were looking for him all over the West, he was tossing in delirium upon a bed in the Sacramento County Hospital in Sacramento, Cal.

GEORGETOWN RESERVES GOT CLOSE CONTEST

By a batting rally in the ninth inning the Georgetown Reserves defeated Technical High School yesterday, in a game which was at all times interesting, by the score of 10 to 2.

With the score a tie in the ninth inning, Tech went to bat first, and apparently clinched the game, sending in two runs, but the Reserves went one better in their half, and won.

The batting of Simon, of the reserves, was the feature. He smashed out two home runs and two singles.

Greatest Pitching Known in Baseball

"Cy" Young Allowed Not a Single Athletic to Reach First—No Hits, No Base on Balls, and No Errors.

RECORD UNEQUALED FOR YEARS.

Following is a record of the no-run, no-hit games that have been played in the big leagues since 1876:

1876—June 2, Lee Richmond, of Worcester, vs. Chicago.

1880—June 17, John M. Ward, of Providence, vs. Buffalo; July 12, Lee Richmond, of Worcester, vs. Cleveland; August 19, Larry Corcoran, of Chicago, vs. Boston; August 20, Jimmy Galvin, of Buffalo, vs. Worcester.

1882—September 11, Tony Mullane, of Louisville, vs. Cincinnati.

1884—August 4, Jimmy Galvin, of Buffalo, vs. Detroit.

1885—April 11, Dave Foutz, of St. Louis Browns, vs. St. Louis Maroons; July 27, John Clarkson, of Chicago, vs. Providence; August 23, Charles Ferguson, of Philadelphia, vs. Providence.

1886—May 1, A. W. Atkinson, of Athletics, vs. Metropolitans; June 2, William H. Terry, of Brooklyn, vs. St. Louis Browns; October 6, Matt Kilroy, of Baltimore, vs. Pittsburgh.

1888—January 15, George Van Haltren, of New York, vs. St. Louis Browns (in California); May 27, William H. Terry, of Brooklyn, vs. Louisville; June 6, Henry Potter, of Kansas City, vs. Baltimore; July 25, Edward Seward, of Athletics, vs. Cincinnati; July 31, "Gus" Weyhing, of Athletics, vs. Kansas City.

1890—June 21, Charles King, of Chicago Players' League team, vs. Brooklyn Players' League team; September 15, Ledell Titcomb, of Rochester, vs. Syracuse.

1891—June 22, Thomas J. Lovett, of Brooklyn, vs. New York; July 31, Amos Rusie, of New York, vs. Brooklyn.

1892—October 15, Charles (Bumps) Jones, of Cincinnati, vs. Pittsburgh; August 6, Jack Stivetts, of Boston, vs. Brooklyn; August 8, A. B. Sanders, of Louisville, vs. Baltimore.

1898—April 22, Theodore Breitenstein, of Cincinnati, vs. Pittsburgh; April 22, Jay Hughes, of Baltimore, vs. Boston; July 8, Frank Donahue, of Philadelphia, vs. Boston; August 21, William Thornton, of Chicago, vs. Brooklyn.

1899—May 8, Gray, of Buffalo, vs. Indianapolis; May 25, Charles Phillippi, of Louisville, vs. New York; June 9, Newton, of Indianapolis, vs. Milwaukee; August 17, Victor Willis, of Boston, vs. Washington.

1900—April 19, Amole, of Buffalo, vs. Detroit; May 17, Kellum, of Indianapolis, vs. Kansas City; June 12, Frank Hahn, of Cincinnati, vs. Philadelphia; July 28, Dowling, of Milwaukee, vs. Cleveland.

1901—July 15, Christian Mathewson, of New York, vs. St. Louis.

1902—September 20, James Callahan, of Chicago American League team, vs. Detroit.

1903—September 18, Charles Fraser, of Philadelphia, vs. Chicago.

BOSTON, Mass., May 6.—Ten thousand voices, keyed to the highest pitch, went off as if by electric shock as the last man went out on a fly to "Chic" Stahl, clinching the greatest game ever pitched by mortal man, yesterday afternoon at the American grounds, landing Boston a winner over the Athletics, 3 to 0.

"Cy" Young, for a score of years the most wonderful slab artist in the business, surpassed all his other achievements, making a new record for pitchers and setting the lovers of the game wild with delight by a phenomenal performance.

It was the treat of a lifetime to see the hard-hitting Athletics, ex-champions of the American League, go down before the masterly performance of the Boston giant. Twenty-seven men walked to the plate, each with his mind bent on reaching first base, but they returned to the bench in order, each player having three chances, and "Rube" Waddell, last on the batting list, closing the game.

Never Such a Record.

Others have shut teams out with no hits, among the number being "Noodles" Hahn, with Cincinnati, and Fraser, last season with Philadelphia, but Young's performance surpassed all, as twenty-seven men went out in order without putting foot on first base.

HYATTSVILLE NOTES.

HYATTSVILLE, Md., May 6.—Henry Klein, aged fourteen, found a railroad torpedo yesterday afternoon and reported it to find out what there was in it. In consequence Dr. Richardson removed three pieces of tin from his right hand and sewed up the mangled member. It will be some time before Henry will have the use of his hand.

An oyster supper was given last night at the basement of Pinckney Memorial Church for the benefit of the church. The attendance was large.

The Rev. Dr. E. R. Dyer, president of St. Mary's Theological Seminary, Baltimore, visited his sister, Mrs. Richard Bowling, Riverdale, yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Dobbs have returned from a visit to their daughter, Mrs. John Lepper, Hoboken, N. J.

SHEEP KING FINED.

PORTLAND, Ore., May 6.—Charles Cunningham, the eastern Oregon sheep king, has pleaded guilty to the charge of conspiracy to defraud the Government out of lands, and was fined $5,000.

WAR PENDING IN CENTRAL AMERICA

Guatemala's President and Salvador's Minister at Odds.

LATTER MADE FIERY SPEECH

Went to Rival's Capital and Repeated the Insults.

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., May 6.—According to the officers of the steamship Acapulco, which has arrived from Panama and way ports, there is some prospect of early trouble between the republics of Salvador and Guatemala. The ill feeling has been more or less acute since Guatemala's dignity was hurt at the Presidential congress, held at Corinto.

Regalado, Salvador's minister of war, who, it is said, is now anxious to bring about a war, is the original cause of all the trouble.

President Cabrero, of Guatemala, was represented at the Corinto convention by one Marino. Regalado was then President of Salvador and in that capacity was in attendance at the convention.

He made a speech, so says the tale told on the Acapulco, in which he denounced Cabrero as a coward. He made other acutely personal remarks which so affronted Marino that he strode from the convention hall and returned to Guatemala City.

Regalado followed, and, forcing his way into Cabrero's presence, Regalado repeated the warmest portions of his convention speech. There was no blood spilled, however. Instead, the executives discussed the matter over wine.

Regalado departed, and some weeks later, so the story runs, Cabrero declared that his dignity had been insulted. He demanded reparation. Regalado refused, but suggested that Costa Rica be requested to arbitrate the difficulty.

Regalado resigned the presidency of Salvador in favor of Escalon, but as minister of war still controls the army, of which he is proud, and whose mettle, it is said, he wants to test against Cabrero's forces.

ANTI-CLERICALS RENEW ATTACK ON CHURCH

HAVANA, Cuba, May 6.—The anti-clerical party in the Senate has returned to the charge with a new bill against religious organizations, providing, among other things, for the prevention of the landing in Cuba of priests who are not natives of the island, and that the property of the churches and religious orders shall be assessed and taxed.

Sprains and Bruises Quickly Cured.

When you get a sprain or bruise, valuable time may be saved by promptly applying Chamberlain's Pain Balm to the injured parts. It will cure a sprain in one-third the time required by the usual treatment. Last winter Herb W. Edwards, of Des Moines, Iowa, got a fall on an icy walk, spraining his wrist and bruising his knees. "The next day," he says, "they were so sore and stiff I was afraid I would have to stay in bed, but I rubbed the parts well with Chamberlain's Pain Balm and after a few applications all soreness had disappeared. I feel that this bottle of Pain Balm saved me several days' time, to say nothing of the suffering." For sale by all druggists.

TODAY'S GAMES.

Wilson vs. St. Alban's, Fourteenth Street and Lydecker Avenue.

One-sided games seem to be a feature in the Sunday School Athletic Association so far this season, but the managers of the weaker teams are in hopes of strengthening them before the bad playing makes a material difference in their percentage columns. The game of yesterday at the Mount Pleasant grounds was the same story, one side good and one side bad. It looked as though the St. Alban's boys were bluffed out from the first by Wilson, which won by 10 to 2.

The St. Alban's boys offer pretty fair ball, but do not put life in their work. Their playing is stiff, and yesterday they seemed to be afraid of the Wilson lads.

Pay Shaffer, playing left field for St. Alban's, was in the game from the start, getting six chances, four putout and two assists, all of which he accepted.

Winning the game yesterday puts Wilson at the head of the percentage column, with the last year "Champs" second.

The Wilson team plays good ball, but will probably get its ribs, when it goes against the Gunttons and Fourths. It has been lucky so far, meeting the poorest teams in the league, and will probably make a different showing against the better.

ST. STEPHEN'S BEAT GONZAGA COLLEGE

One of the best amateur baseball games seen on the Monument Lot grounds this season, was played yesterday afternoon between St. Stephen's and Gonzaga College teams, in the new Capital Baseball Association. It was won by St. Stephen's, 5 to 3.

The work by both of the pitchers was excellent, Gonzaga getting but four hits off Donohue, and St. Stephen's only seven off Slattery. Donohue struck out fourteen men, and Slattery nine.

The Turner Athletic Club and Woodward & Lothrop teams will meet this afternoon, on the White Lot Grounds at 5:30 o'clock.

HOSPITAL ATTENDANTS WANT BETTER SALARIES

T. O. Pyles, chairman of the committee on the Hospital Attendants' Union, at St. Elizabeth's, which recently made a protest to the authorities against a new wage scale for employees at the asylum, says that the union is still unsatisfied with the present arrangement of salaries. "We shall hold a meeting soon to take up the whole matter in a systematic manner," he said.

"Some time ago the union drew up a scale of its own which we regard as fair and suitable to the work required at the asylum, and we believe the board of visitors, when they hold their next meeting, will look on it with favor."
